C: What! What are you saying Dad?

J: Did you Gwen, did you kill your sister?

5-23 Gwen continues to explain why she killed Morgan, this time we see the reaction to her words in the faces of John, Courtney and Max. Page 9
G: It got to the point that I couldn't even look at myself in the mirror without seeing her face... hearing her call me a disappointment, a spinster, a failure... barren. And then one day I realised, if I am her, there really doesn't need to be two of us - now does there?

3:30pm Break (includes Camera reposition).

3:45pm	5-21	Gwen sighs deeply and stands up straight, staring John in the eyes. Her disposition changes instantly, as she knows from what Detective Jarrett has disclosed that she's been caught. Her inner psychopath rises as her eyes go from avoidance to piercing killer in a moment. G: Yes John... I killed Morgan.	Page 9
	5-22	Gwen explains why she killed Morgan, seeming to enjoy the disclosure much to the horror of her audience. G: The thought of spending another moment in her shadow was suffocating. She always won and she never shared. She got to go to university, to marry, she even got to have a kid.	Page 9
	5-24	Detective Jarrett retrieves his handcuffs from a back pocket and turns Gwen around, securing her hands with two loud clicks.	Page 9
